

MENTOR'S HANDBOOK

STEVENS POINT ELKS LODGE #641

MENTORING PROGRAM:

The Stevens Point Elks Lodge has an established mentoring program for new members. You have volunteered or have been asked to be a mentor to a new member. This document is intended to provide you with guidelines and information you need to be an effective mentor to your recently initiated new member. However, no document can make you a mentor – YOU must be willing to welcome your new member to Elkdom, share with them what Elkdom is all about and make sure they have the opportunity to GET INVOLVED – and know they are encouraged and welcome to do so.

The primary objective of the Mentoring Program is the active engagement and involvement of newly initiated members in Elkdom and in Lodge activities. It is not unusual for newly initiated members to be unaware of the tenets of Elkdom, what the various Lodge activities are, whether they are permitted to be involved in those Lodge activities, whether their involvement would be welcome, what their involvement would entail or how to become involved. It is your job as mentor to address these issues.

Clearly, then, the primary objectives of the mentoring program are:

1. To ensure that the new member is informed and educated with regard to Elkdom in general and to the activities the Lodge in particular, what the activities entail, when they occur, how they are structured, who runs them, how they relate to Grand Lodge and Elkdom, and what their overall intent is.
2. To ensure that the new member is aware that their participation in these events is permitted AND ENCOURAGED, what that engagement would entail, and what sort of time or effort commitment that engagement would mean.
3. To introduce the new member to the Activity Chairmen to facilitate and foster the new member's further education and potential engagement in activities for which they may show an interest.

It is clearly important that the new member not feel overly coerced or intimidated, but openly given the information, the opportunity and a strong encouragement by their mentor to get involved in Lodge activities that may be to their interest.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF A MENTOR:

As a mentor your responsibilities are to:

- If necessary, introduce yourself to the new member and desirably to the new member's spouse and family.
- Let the new member know that you, their mentor, are their “first line” of help and information regarding anything Elkdom. In this responsibility, if the new member asks you a question and you do not know the answer don't make one up. It is your responsibility to get the information and provide them a full, accurate and complete answer as soon as you can.
- Begin and continue the process of informing the new member regarding Elkdom and the activities of the Lodge. We suggest you regularly meet with your new member.
- (Mandatory) Bring the new member to Lodge meetings, answer any questions the new member may have regarding the meetings and the rituals. Make sure the new member knows they are welcome and encouraged to attend Lodge meetings.
- (Mandatory) Bring the new member to one of the next initiation ceremonies. They will understand much more about what is said and what it means when they are not the “deer in the headlights.”
- (Mandatory) Host the new member and their spouse to an “introductory dinner” at the Lodge on a Tuesday or Friday, introduce the new member to Lodge members and their spouses that may be present, make the new member and their spouse feel welcome and at home in the Lodge. If you not comfortable with introductions ask any of the officers present and we will gladly assist.
- Explain each Lodge activity to the new member, provide the new member with documentation regarding Lodge events, host them to the activities that may occur and (obviously) encourage their engagement and involvement in the activities that the new member may show an interest in.
- Put the new member in contact with the various Activity Chairmen.
- If the new member becomes involved in an activity, you should be prepared (should the new member wish) to also become involved in that activity.

- Provide feedback to the Membership and Lapsation committee on interactions with the new member, particularly on any issues that arise or with which you or he may need assistance.

It is also crucially important that you provide feedback to the committee with ideas that may help improve the program or obstacles that need to be addressed.

The relationship between a mentor and a new member is not expected to last more than one year. If you should so desire, you may mentor more than one new member at a time, given that you have the time to address such a commitment.

LODGE ACTIVITIES TO DISCUSS WITH THE NEW MEMBER:

The following are some of the Lodge events that you should discuss with your new member. Encourage their involvement and make sure they are aware that their involvement is welcome.

MEETINGS:

- Lodge Meetings: These are the official and formal Lodge meetings and should be attended whenever you and your new member's schedules permit. These are held on the first and third Wednesday of each month (first Wednesday only in July and August) at 7:30pm. Substantial Lodge information and business is conducted at these meetings.
- Lodge Management Meetings: These are more “business” oriented meetings, less formal than the official Lodge meetings. Business requiring discussion and brain-storming is usually conducted at these meetings, sometimes leading to voting at following official Lodge meetings. All members are welcome to attend Lodge Management Meetings and can bring any issue to the attention of the Lodge. These meetings are held on the fourth Tuesday of the month at 6:30pm.
- Lodge Committee Meetings: Various Lodge committees meet during the month:
 - Lodge Trustees, First Wednesday of the month at 6:30pm

- House Committee: First Wednesday of the month at 6:30pm
- PER (Past Exalted Ruler) Association: Third Wednesday of the month at 6:30pm

There are other committees that meet on an ad-hoc basis. Generally, any member is welcome to attend these meetings, but they should first check with the committee chairman.

CONCLUSION:

Obviously, this document is not meant to be exclusive nor exhaustive – there are undoubtedly other things you need to educate your new member about.

If there are items in this document that you need more information about, do not hesitate to contact an officer of the Lodge and they will get it for you or point you in the right direction where you can find it. Don't be shy.

REMEMBER: Your new member will get much more out of their experience as an Elk if they GET INVOLVED in Lodge activities and in Elkdom! Your primary duty is to see that they know they are welcome and encouraged to do so!
